PLAY IT GREEN

What Our Customers Say

Sustainability is no longer an afterthought when partners like Play It Green exist, the time to make change is now. It gives me great pleasure to be working with such a reputable partner and I look forward to growing The Regency Club's sustainability goals with Play It Green!

Rahul Sharma, Owner, The Regency Club

Hospitality customers and employees are increasingly demanding that the businesses they eat, drink and work in are having a positive impact on the planet. Play it Green gives the restaurants, pubs, bars, and hotels we work with a simple way to make a hugely positive impact. Play it Green can drive loyalty amongst customers and hospitality employees.

Katy Moses, Founder, KAM

Play It Green align to the values and aims of G4S, supporting our net zero and ESG ambitions. Their passion for better business is infectious and being a member adds value to our operation. I couldn't be more delighted to continue to work with Chris and the team at Play It Green. G4S are a proud member of such an impactful business in Play It Green.

Heike Butler, Head of Sustainability, G4S

Manchester Central

Our sustainability strategy is core to the business and we're really pleased to be working with Play It Green to take even bigger steps towards realising our ambitions.

Learning more about sustainability and reducing carbon footprint must be about investing in and embedding really strong practices.
